With over 40 years' experience of working with schools and parents, Justin Craig has a proven track record of helping students perform their best on exam day.

We are dedicated to helping students achieve their true potential and are proud to be a leading provider of GCSE and A Level tailor-made revision programmes for UK schools, colleges and academies.

What We Do

We work with schools to design and deliver the best programme to help students maximise their potential.

We offer significant choice to schools on the content, location, duration and timing of courses, including the option of courses on school premises.

All our courses are:

- Led by experienced teachers, department heads and examiners
- Comprised of small groups (maximum 10 students recommended) to optimise learning effectiveness
- Designed in partnership with the school and tailored to fit specific requirements.

Why Justin Craig

With over 40 years' experience of proven success, Justin Craig has the resources, tutor expertise and tailored approach to help schools improve student grades.

We don't just provide tuition and revision to schools as we have a successful portfolio of courses, including:

- A comprehensive timetable of year-round holiday courses at our centres across the country and online.
- One-to-one tuition for students who work better on their own.
- Summer School transition courses to prepare students for their move to a higher Year Group.

Our Tutors

Our tutors are teachers who excel in their subject, specialising in GCSE and A Level teaching.

All of our tutors are experienced teachers, with 97% currently working in mainstream education and many examiners and Heads of Department. All have up to date knowledge of the curriculum and exam requirements, and create a lively, vibrant and inclusive class environment.
